In Europe, we operate more than 1,300 flights a week to 63 airports.

Our effort is concentrated in the Eastern Europe area, where we fly over 300 flights a week (that's 22% of total traffic) to 18 airports: Tirana, Sarajevo, Sofia, Prague, Zagreb, Budapest, Skopje, Warsaw, Krakow, Bucharest, Timisoara, Moscow, St Petersburg, Kiev, Belgrade, Minsk, Istanbul and Split.

Our commitment to Eastern Europe is confirmed by the recent opening of routes to Kiev and Minsk; the summer-only route to Split; the start of week-end flights to Skopje and Sarajevo, as well as the extra flights we have added from Milan Malpensa to Moscow, Prague, Sofia and Dusseldorf and from Rome Fiumicino to Bucharest.

Strasbourg flights are another addition in Europe.

Elsewhere in the world, we fly to all principal destinations, serving 27 airports with 252 flights a week in total, for your convenience and at times that will suit your requirements.

35% of the airports we fly to are in the Mediterranean, the Middle East and North Africa, as a confirmation of the attention we have always reserved to these regions. We are also continuing to look eastwards, with the opening of additional routes to Kuala Lumpur, Penang, Sydney, Melbourne and Perth.

On our long-haul routes to Buenos Aires, Tokyo, São Paulo, Osaka, New York and Miami, we operate Boeing B777s.
